VIRGINIA COMMONWEALTH UNIVERSITY

VVCU

In a world of the common WE ARE THE UNCOMMON

And we are unlike any university you have ever seen.

We are the university for Virginia. Our community is more than 300,000 strong — each Ram a unique mix of style, story, and attitude. Together, we're forging a future that is built by us.

Ignited by the energy of the city, we're ready to lead industries — or disrupt them. We seek out the unexpected, the experimental, the never-been-tried. Here, artists and engineers, doctors and designers come together to reimagine the human experience and tackle the problems of tomorrow. It's this mindset that makes us one of the top 30 most innovative public universities in the country, according to U.S. News & World Report.

We have a drive to discover, to create, to heal. We're a top 50 public research institution and one of the best hospital systems in the state. Our discoveries are revolutionizing care and treatment locally and globally, from cancer, heart disease and liver disease, to mental health, substance use disorders and traumatic brain injury.

At VCU, we don't just accept differences — we celebrate them. We know that our unique backgrounds and life experiences are what drives the university forward. That's one reason VCU has received the prestigious Higher Education Excellence in Diversity Award with a special distinction as a Diversity Champion five times.

VCU isn't what you expect — in all the right ways.

Welcome to a world unlike any other.
Welcome to VCU.

Important Note

Due to time constraints, this program is printed before the final list of degree candidates and final honor status for undergraduate students is determined. This program is based on information available at the time of printing.

Therefore, the inclusion or exclusion of the name of a student is not to be taken as an official graduation status of the student.

The May Commencement program will include the names of students with an active May graduation application at the time of printing. The December Commencement program will include the names of students with an active August or December graduation application at the time of printing.

Only undergraduate students are eligible for honors designations. The honor status of an undergraduate student noted in the program is based on the student's honors designation at the time of printing. Honor designations do not apply to the degrees received by graduate students.

Virginia Commonwealth University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award Baccalaureate, Master's, doctoral and first professional degrees.

Dear Class of 2023:

Congratulations to you, the newest alumni of VCU. Earning a degree is not a one-time event, but a years-long process. In your time here, you've not only learned new information and skills – you've learned how to think and process that information. You've gained confidence in yourself and your abilities. Your dedication to academic excellence will translate well to whatever you choose to do in the future.

VCU is dedicated to the true mission of public higher education: to create opportunities for every student who works hard to earn a degree. We're preparing students to be creators, educators, healers, innovators and entrepreneurs – and helping shape the next greatest generation of Americans and responsible citizens of the world.

As a graduate of VCU, you are unstoppable – because you have unlimited potential. On behalf of the faculty, staff, students and proud alumni of Virginia Commonwealth University, I congratulate you on your remarkable achievement. As we celebrate your commencement today, we are incredibly proud of you and wish you the brightest future possible.

Best wishes,

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

2023 Recipient
Mo Alie-Cox

Mo Alie-Cox is known for his athleticism on both the college basketball court and the professional football field. As a standout at VCU, Alie-Cox helped the Rams triumph in 57 games as a member of the men's starting lineup during the 2014-2016 seasons. Post-graduation, he pivoted in his sports career and is now a tight end for the NFL's Indianapolis Colts, racking up 89 career receptions and 11 touchdowns through the 2022 season.

A fan favorite at VCU, the 6-foot-5-inch Alie-Cox inspired the popular chant "Mo Says No" during home games, when he soared into the air to block opponents' shots. During that time, the Rams made it to two consecutive NCAA Tournaments and won the school's first Atlantic 10 Conference championship. Alie-Cox still holds VCU's record for field goal percentage.

His drive and tenacity go beyond athletics. He earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice in three years from the L. Douglas Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs, graduating in 2015. Alie-Cox balanced a heavy course load with traveling to away games, and attending practices and countless team meetings spent going over plays and crafting strategies. Alie-Cox was nominated by the criminal justice program for a "Black History in the Making Award" as an undergrad, in recognition of his accomplishments in athletics and academics.

Much of his ability to persevere was instilled by his mother, Saudatu, an immigrant from Sierra Leone who raised her son while attending nursing school and working full-time.

Edward A. Wayne Medal

The Edward A. Wayne Medal was established in 1971 to honor individuals who have made outstanding contributions or provided exemplary services to Virginia Commonwealth University. The medal is named in honor of Edward A. Wayne, who was chair of the commission that led to the establishment of VCU in 1968 by the Virginia General Assembly. Mr. Wayne served as the university's first vice rector.

Coleman “Coley” Wortham III is one of the strongest supporters of pediatric health care in Richmond. For more than 40 years, he has advocated and fundraised for, and financially contributed to, causes and institutions dedicated to ensuring that all children have access to the best care.

As chairman of the Children’s Hospital Foundation Board, Coley has helped raise more than $130 million on behalf of the Children’s Hospital of Richmond at VCU. He previously served on the board of the Crippled Children’s Hospital, which later became the Children’s Hospital on Brook Road. In 2010, and with Coley’s support, the hospital joined with VCU’s Children’s Medical Center to become the Children’s Hospital of Richmond at VCU.

He, wife Lindsay, and children Ginny and Coleman have been generous supporters of the foundation and many areas of the university, including MCV Hospitals; Massey Cancer Center; VCU Athletics; and the VCU Schools of Business, Dentistry and Medicine.

Coley also has served the community on board positions at the Mutual Assurance Society of Virginia and Media General. He currently serves as chairman of the wealth management firm Davenport & Company, where he began his career as an investment advisor in 1969 and was president and CEO from 1986 to 2011. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia with a degree in economics.

Coley’s dedication to VCU, and especially the Children’s Hospital of Richmond at VCU, as a volunteer leader, visionary partner and generous donor, has been exceptional. His active and devoted service will leave a meaningful and lasting impact, for years to come, on many in our community and well beyond.

2023 Recipient
Coleman Wortham III

Presidential Medallion

The Presidential Medallion was established in 1984 by the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors to honor the outstanding contributions of members of the university community. Presented by the president at Commencement, the award recognizes these individuals for extraordinary achievement in learning and commitment to the mission of VCU.

Faye Zollicoffer Belgrave is an internationally recognized author, teacher, researcher and equity advocate who joined the VCU faculty in 1997 as a professor of psychology. In 2002, Belgrave founded the Center for Cultural Experiences in Prevention to bring together university and community partners to conduct culturally competent research and implement programs that reduce racial disparities in health. After decades of work in equity and education, Belgrave was appointed Associate Dean for Equity and Community Partnerships in the College of Humanities and Sciences in 2020.

Faye Z. Belgrave, Ph.D.

Belgrave has published numerous papers, authored several books and is co-author of the first textbook on African American psychology, now in its fourth edition. Her research focuses on resiliency and culture, to challenge the dominant narrative of at-risk minority groups. With funding from agencies such as the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Service Administration, the National Institutes of Health and the Office of Women's Health, she has implemented research and programs on health prevention and intervention in collaboration with community organizations and HBCUs. She has delivered many presentations to community audiences and served on the board of directors for organizations including the Virginia League of Planned Parenthood, Building the Fire Within and SisterFund.

Belgrave has mentored doctoral and postdoctoral students and junior faculty at VCU, and she has strengthened VCU by attracting and supporting diverse faculty. She is also a past president of VCU's Black Education Association and has served as a chair and member of faculty and staff search committees as well as promotion and tenure committees.

Belgrave has received numerous awards and recognitions, including a VCU University Professorship, a Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Psychological Association, the Association of Black Psychologists Distinguished Psychologist Award and an Outstanding Faculty Award from the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia.

Belgrave received a Ph.D. from the University of Maryland College Park, an M.S. from the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, and a B.S. from North Carolina A&T State University. She is the mother of two adult children, Angela and Alexander Belgrave.

Board of Visitors Award

The Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors Award recognizes the achievements of an outstanding undergraduate student who represents the distinctive attributes of a VCU student: outstanding academic achievement, leadership, and service to the university and the community at large. The recipient of the award will receive a one-year scholarship in the amount equal to in-state tuition and fees.

Isabel “Izzy” Diaz is an ardent proponent of community service and societal change. An active member of Planned Parenthood Generation Action at VCU, Diaz has led outreach and advocacy work to support women and transgender individuals seeking reproductive or gender-affirming health care. As a member of the NAACP at VCU Diaz also strived to increase political participation of BIPOC communities by registering voters, and she fosters cultural and networking connections within VCU’s Latinx academic community as a member of the Latinx Student Association.

Diaz’s background as a second-generation Latinx American is part of what drives her to promote equitable access to health care and humanitarian services — tools that at one time gave her family needed stability — within Richmond. A student in the Robertson School of Media and Culture, with a focus on creative advertising, Diaz has leveraged her communications, networking and marketing skills in her service endeavors.

Diaz has headed social media and member engagement efforts for PPGA at VCU, roles that task her with increasing community and student participation; organizing fundraisers, activities and events; and collecting survey data that advance the organization’s mission. Diaz and other PPGA at VCU members collaborated with the Richmond Reproductive Freedom Project to hold donation drives for menstrual care packages for people in need, and care packages for people traveling from out of state to access abortion care in Richmond. Diaz worked with PPGA at VCU to hold on-campus panels featuring experts in reproductive health, Virginia reproductive laws and transgender health, providing a safe space for students to have questions about the state of health care addressed.

Diaz is currently based in Fredericksburg, Virginia, and is the daughter of Alfred and Rose Diaz. She is the youngest of four siblings.

Board of Visitors Award

The Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors Award recognizes the achievements of an outstanding undergraduate student who represents the distinctive attributes of a VCU student: outstanding academic achievement, leadership, and service to the university and the community at large. The recipient of the award will receive a one-year scholarship in the amount equal to in-state tuition and fees.

Zion Segears strives to improve health and education outcomes in minority and economically disadvantaged communities. As a research assistant and student in the Department of Kinesiology and Health Sciences in the College of Humanities and Sciences, Segears helps shed light on how stress negatively impacts the cardiovascular health of Black Americans and seeks ways to mitigate these effects. Segears also served as community service chairman of VCU's Developing Men of Color organization, a role in which he facilitated and organized wide-ranging projects that impacted communities in Richmond and beyond.

Segears has inspired other young men of color to serve their communities by connecting them with volunteer opportunities and leading discussions on the value of service. As a leader in Developing Men of Color, Segears deepened the organization's relationship with United2Heal at VCU by partnering to package medical supplies for developing countries. He also has mentored students at Binford Middle School to increase college participation for BIPOC youth in Richmond.

A lover of basketball and exercise science, Segears supports women's athletics at VCU as a member of the women's basketball team's practice squad.

The diversity of Segears' academic experience equals that of his service. He interned at Columbia University through the national Summer Health Professions Education Program, an initiative that connects underrepresented students in health education with professionals. An aspiring physical therapist, Segears shadowed physical therapists throughout New York City, practiced methods of analyzing patients in a clinical setting and attended seminars on both health disparities and the opioid crisis in the U.S. In his role as a research assistant at VCU, Segears helps run tests to collect, record and process data that provides new insights on how racism affects stress levels.

Originally from Northern Virginia and raised by Inez and Leon Segears Jr., Segears is one of two children. He would like to acknowledge his biggest inspiration, his sister Gabriella, who is graduating from VCU today with a dual degree.

Academic Costume

The academic costume worn at American college exercises derives from the Middle Ages. The oldest universities of northern Europe, such as Paris and Oxford, grew out of church schools, and both faculty and students were regarded in the Middle Ages as a part of the clergy. They wore clerical habits, largely borrowed from the monastic dress of that day, not just on special occasions but as their regular attire.

The head covering of the academic costume developed from the skull cap worn by the clergy in cold weather to protect the tonsured head. In the universities, the skull cap acquired a point on top, which evolved into a tassel. The bonnet with tassel is still worn by degree holders of European universities. In America, it has been replaced by the familiar mortar board, which still retains the medieval tassel.

The hood (the medieval caputium) was originally a covering worn over the head in bad weather, otherwise dropped on the shoulders as the monk's cowl. At first it was worn by faculty and students alike, but in the early 16th century it was restricted to graduates, thus becoming the mark of a degree holder. Today, each college has its distinctive hood lining by which its graduates may be recognized in academic processions. Graduates from Virginia Commonwealth University may wear a hood showing a black chevron on gold background.

The gown comes from the medieval robe and seems to have been borrowed from the habit of the Benedictine monks. In the Middle Ages, undergraduates, bachelors and masters could be distinguished by the simplicity or intricacy of their gowns. The doctor's gown was often furred, which survives today in the ornamentation found on the doctoral gown. Usually the gown is black, but some colleges have gowns of different colors.

The wide velvet borders extending down the front of the doctoral gown, the velvet bars on the sleeves, and the borders of most hoods are colored according to the scholarly field of the wearer.

University Honors and Awards

Honors College

VCU bestows the accolade of “graduation with University Honors” on graduating seniors who have attained distinction through impressive achievement in course work as well as other formal and informal educational experiences. To merit this distinction, students must complete a rigorous honors curriculum, excel in their academic work and submit an academic dossier that reflects their commitment to learning in the best university tradition. Their petition to graduate with University Honors must be approved by the Honors College Council. The medallions worn at Commencement recognize this achievement; this distinction is also noted on the students’ official transcripts and on their diplomas.

Virginia Commonwealth University is committed to excellence in teaching, research, public service, and patient care. To realize and recognize academic excellence is VCU’s highest priority. Honors College was established to help fulfill this objective by meeting the needs of academically talented undergraduate students.

Alma Mater

In March 2016, VCU Alumni's board of governors approved Virginia Commonwealth University's first alma mater, "We Gather Here." Written by Lemont "Monty" Kier, Ph.D., a longtime faculty member, and his son, Andy Kier, a 1990 VCU graduate, the school song honors the university's commitment to providing students with experiences that they carry with them beyond their years on campus.

"We Gather Here"

Lyrics: Monty Kier Music: Andy Kier

We gather here, our voices raise,
of VCU we sing our praise,
the Black and Gold our colors show,
diversity and value grow.

We've learned so much beyond each class,
the joy of friendship will not pass.
So much in life is mem'ry borne,
of VCU they'll not be shorn.

The mem'ries of a campus walk,
so many friends, we stop to talk,
the friendships here were made to last,
they're in our minds though years have passed.
The seasons pass, the years roll by,
from VCU the reason's why
we are enriched from values learned,
they bring us joy that we have earned.

Next year again we will be here
to see our school and give a cheer.
So VCU keep all that is great,
you've brought us joy that is our fate.
So come let us sing of VCU,
with ev'ry verse we will renew
the mem'ries from our campus time,
each one embedded in a rhyme.

Dear graduate,

Congratulations! Today marks an amazing milestone in your academic career and in your life. No doubt you have countless friends and family members who supported you and cheered for you along the way.

I know that the memories of your time at VCU will stay with you forever — and your connection to VCU doesn't end at graduation. You are now part of the ranks of VCU's thriving alumni community (more than 218,000 alumni strong!) that is here to support you every step of the way — throughout your life moments, graduate school, careers, family and much more.

As a graduate, you have access through VCU Alumni to networking and career services, useful resources and exciting opportunities. Our goal is to provide you with programs and events that connect you to one another and to your alma mater. No matter where life takes you, VCU Alumni is your link for engaging with the university and with your classmates.

My wish for each of you is that you realize your full potential and, in doing so, use your significant talents and energies to support and strengthen your communities, your alumni organization and your university.

I am proud of you and believe wholeheartedly in your unlimited ability to make a difference in the world beyond our campus.

Go Rams!
