VIRGINIA COMMONWEALTH UNIVERSITY

VCU

In a world of the common WE ARE THE UNCOMMON

And we are unlike any university you have ever seen.

We are the university for Virginia. Our community is more than 227,000 strong — each Ram a unique mix of style, story and attitude. Together, we're forging a future that is built by us.

Ignited by the energy of the city, we're ready to lead industries — or disrupt them. We seek out the unexpected, the experimental, the never-been-tried. Here, artists and engineers, doctors and designers come together to reimagine the human experience and tackle the problems of tomorrow.

We have a drive to discover, to create, to heal. We're a top 50 public research institution and one of the best hospital systems in the state. Our discoveries are revolutionizing care and treatment locally and globally, from cancer, heart disease and liver disease to mental health, substance use disorders and traumatic brain injury.

At VCU, we don't just accept differences — we celebrate them. We know that our unique backgrounds and life experiences are what drive the university forward. That's one reason VCU has received the prestigious Higher Education Excellence in Diversity Award with a special distinction as a Diversity Champion six times.

VCU isn't what you expect — in all the right ways.

Welcome to a world unlike any other.

Welcome to VCU.

Important Note

Due to time constraints, this program is printed before the final list of degree candidates and final honor status for undergraduate students is determined.

This program is based on information available at the time of printing.

Therefore, the inclusion or exclusion of the name of a student is not to be taken as an official graduation status of the student.

The May Commencement program will include the names of students with an active May graduation application at the time of printing. The December Commencement program will include the names of students with an active August or December graduation application at the time of printing.

Only undergraduate students are eligible for honors designations. The honor status of an undergraduate student noted in the program is based on the student's honors designation at the time of printing. Honor designations do not apply to the degrees received by graduate students.

Your dedication to excellence will translate to whatever you choose to do in the future. You are all ready for whatever emerges in your lives and careers. Great things are coming your way.

VCU is committed to supporting student success by meeting the changing needs of our students, communities and society. Our graduates are innovators. As a public university and health system, we're bridging gaps between problems and solutions, diseases and cures, the educational world and the professional world.

Now that you are alumni of VCU, we look forward to you staying connected with us, joining more than 227,000 VCU graduates all over the world in our alumni association, as we continue to work for your success.

On behalf of your Virginia Commonwealth University community, congratulations on your remarkable achievement. As we celebrate your commencement today, we are incredibly proud of you and wish you the brightest future possible.

Best wishes,

Commencement Speaker

Chris Tsui

As a recipe for success, take one part VCU, one part Richmond ... and one part Chris Tsui. In the past two decades, the VCU alum and trailblazing restaurateur has helped elevate the city to widespread acclaim.

Tsui is the founder and president of EAT Restaurant Partners, whose roster of a dozen popular locations has brought diversity and dining delight to Richmond's restaurant scene – a hallmark of the region's emergence as a national and even global destination for culture and exploration.

Tsui's restaurants include Osaka Sushi & Steak, which he founded in 2002, as well as Beijing on Grove, Fat Dragon, Wild Ginger, Wong Gonzalez and Boulevard Burger & Brew. And his embrace of suburban as well as city geography reflects a breadth of commitment to the larger community, which includes current or past service on advisory boards such as Venture Richmond and Richmond Region Tourism.

Tsui came to America at a young age, and his parents settled in Richmond. He worked as a busboy and then a waiter at Peking, one of the first and most prominent Chinese restaurants in Richmond, which his uncle co-founded. Tsui became general manager after graduating from VCU in 1991 with a degree in business administration and management.

College became a formative time with lasting ties. Though Tsui lived in New York City for several years, his embrace of family and Richmond's openness to change pulled him back to the city. Osaka became the foundation for EAT's growth into one of the region's most prominent restaurant groups – a collection that Tsui is expanding in 2025 and has happily shared with VCU.

Among his campus connections: Tsui forged a partnership with VCU Athletics, providing food in the Board of Visitors room at halftime of many basketball games as a way to showcase EAT's extensive offerings – and his own Ram pride.

Edward A. Wayne Medal

The Edward A. Wayne Medal was established in 1971 to honor individuals who have made outstanding contributions or provided exemplary services to Virginia Commonwealth University.

The medal is named in honor of Edward A. Wayne, who was chair of the commission that led to the establishment of VCU in 1968 by the Virginia General Assembly. Mr. Wayne served as the university's first vice rector.

VCU alums Tonya Parris-Wilkins, D.D.S., and Joseph Wilkins, D.P.T., M.S.H.A., are longtime supporters of VCU and VCU Health. Sharing their time and expertise over 15 years, the couple have made a significant impact across the university, most notably through volunteer leadership and philanthropic commitments.

Tonya and Joe, who each hold undergraduate degrees from the College of William and Mary, established strong VCU ties in their commitment to patient care. Tonya earned her Doctor of Dental Surgery degree from VCU in 2003. Joe earned three degrees from VCU: His Doctor of Physical Therapy degree in 2006 was surrounded by two master's degrees (physical therapy in 2001 and health care administration in 2011).

Their professional work has been marked by roles of distinction. Tonya has owned a dental practice for many years and currently serves as chief of dentistry at the Hampton Veterans Administration Medical Center. Previously an appointee to the Virginia Board of Dentistry, Tonya ascended to the presidency in 2018. She also is a master of the Academy of General Dentistry and a fellow of the American Association of Hospital Dentists.

Joe has held leadership roles at multiple medical centers, and he currently serves as president of Bon Secours St. Francis Medical Center in Chesterfield County. Joe is a fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives, and he served on the Virginia Health Workforce Development Authority board.

Together, Tonya and Joe have established a lasting mark at VCU, including through their current service on the university's Campaign Cabinet. Tonya also served on the School of Dentistry advisory board, was a trustee of the VCU Foundation and was a member of the VCU Board of Visitors, serving as secretary. In 2021, Joe was recognized as a VCU Alumni Star, highlighting his achievement in health administration.

And in 2012, Tonya and Joe endowed the Parris Wilkins Scholarship in the School of Dentistry – a commitment reflecting their own journeys that revealed the power of higher education.

The couple reside in Richmond and have three children.

2024 Recipients

Tonya A. Parris-Wilkins,
D.D.S. and Joseph D.
Wilkins, D.P.T., M.S.H.A.

Presidential Medallion

The Presidential Medallion was established in 1984 by the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors to honor the outstanding contributions of members of the university community. Presented by the president at Commencement, the award recognizes these individuals for extraordinary achievement in learning and commitment to the mission of VCU.

Joe Seipel was a sculptor beyond his studio. In molding the VCU School of the Arts over four-plus decades, he gave shape to the entire university -- its commitment to students, its embrace of community and its stature as a national leader in the arts.

Seipel retired as VCUarts dean in 2016, and under his leadership, the school's prominence grew exponentially -- and the arts scene around it flourished. An early champion of cross-disciplinary partnerships on campus, Seipel also helped the university realize its vision for the Institute for Contemporary Art at VCU.

Though his legacy -- and his works as a sculptor -- endure on a large scale, his introduction to VCU was much smaller. Seipel's 1974 interview with the Department of Sculpture started at a picnic table behind 914 W. Franklin St., but he quickly saw VCU, in his words, as "a spectacular community of like-minded artists."

In 1985, Seipel became chair of the department and earned acclaim for his student-oriented pedagogical strategies. He became associate dean of VCUarts in 2001 and then dean in 2011.

Seipel's stewardship of VCUarts elevated the MFA sculpture program to No. 1 in the nation and led the school to its highest academic ranking ever. VCUarts also rose to No. 2 overall among arts programs in the U.S. News & World Report list of America's Best Graduate Schools, and it maintained its position as the No. 1 public program.

Though Seipel officially retired in 2016, he returned a short time later as interim director of the ICA, leading a successful fundraising campaign for its construction.

Seipel also was an active participant in the Richmond arts scene, including as co-founder of the 1708 Gallery on West Broad Street. And his list of high-profile appointments and honors was extensive. To Seipel, it reflected his passion for connecting art, campus and community through his work at VCU -- a place he called the "university of yes."

Seipel passed away on June 12, 2024. He was 76.

Academic Costume

The academic costume worn at American college exercises derives from the Middle Ages. The oldest universities of northern Europe, such as Paris and Oxford, grew out of church schools, and both faculty and students were regarded in the Middle Ages as a part of the clergy. They wore clerical habits, largely borrowed from the monastic dress of that day, not just on special occasions but as their regular attire.

The head covering of the academic costume developed from the skull cap worn by the clergy in cold weather to protect the tonsured head. In the universities, the skull cap acquired a point on top, which evolved into a tassel. The bonnet with tassel is still worn by degree holders of European universities. In America, it has been replaced by the familiar mortar board, which still retains the medieval tassel.

The hood (the medieval caputium) was originally a covering worn over the head in bad weather, otherwise dropped on the shoulders as the monk's cowl. At first it was worn by faculty and students alike, but in the early 16th century it was restricted to graduates, thus becoming the mark of a degree holder. Today, each college has its distinctive hood lining by which its graduates may be recognized in academic processions. Graduates from Virginia Commonwealth University may wear a hood showing a black chevron on a gold background.

The gown comes from the medieval robe and seems to have been borrowed from the habit of the Benedictine monks. In the Middle Ages, undergraduates, bachelors and masters could be distinguished by the simplicity or intricacy of their gowns. The doctor's gown was often furred, which survives today in the ornamentation found on the doctoral gown. Usually the gown is black, but some colleges have gowns of different colors.

The wide velvet borders extending down the front of the doctoral gown, the velvet bars on the sleeves, and the borders of most hoods are colored according to the scholarly field of the wearer.

Alma Mater

In March 2016, VCU Alumni's board of governors approved Virginia Commonwealth University's first alma mater, "We Gather Here." Written by Lemont "Monty" Kier, Ph.D., a longtime faculty member, and his son, Andy Kier, a 1990 VCU graduate, the school song honors the university's commitment to providing students with experiences that they carry with them beyond their years on campus.

"We Gather Here"

Lyrics: Monty Kier Music: Andy Kier

We gather here, our voices raise,
of VCU we sing our praise,
the Black and Gold our colors show,
diversity and value grow.
We've learned so much beyond each class,
the joy of friendship will not pass.
So much in life is mem'ry borne,
of VCU they'll not be shorn.

The mem'ries of a campus walk,
so many friends, we stop to talk,
the friendships here were made to last,
they're in our minds though years have passed.
The seasons pass, the years roll by,
from VCU the reason's why
we are enriched from values learned,
they bring us joy that we have earned.

Next year again we will be here
to see our school and give a cheer.
So VCU keep all that is great,
you've brought us joy that is our fate.
So come let us sing of VCU,
with ev'ry verse we will renew
the mem'ries from our campus time,
each one embedded in a rhyme.

Dear graduate,

Congratulations! Today marks an amazing milestone in your academic career and in your life. No doubt you have countless friends and family members who supported you and cheered for you along the way.

I know that the memories of your time at VCU will stay with you forever — and your connection to VCU doesn't end at graduation. You are now part of the ranks of VCU's thriving alumni community (more than 227,000 alumni strong!) that is here to support you every step of the way — throughout your life moments, graduate school, careers, family and much more.

As a graduate, you have access through VCU Alumni to networking and career services, useful resources and exciting opportunities. Our goal is to provide you with programs and events that connect you to one another and to your alma mater. No matter where life takes you, VCU Alumni is your link for engaging with the university and with your classmates.

My wish for each of you is that you realize your full potential and, in doing so, use your significant talents and energies to support and strengthen your communities, your alumni organization and your university.

I am proud of you and look forward to seeing how you use your talent in the world beyond our campus.

Go Rams!
